Wee Worship

Have you ever experienced our Wee Worship on Sunday mornings? You should! Each Sunday during the 10:30 worship, pre-school children experience a Bible story, worship time, prayer, and hands-on activities! The way it works is your child begins the hour in his or her classroom. When they enter, they will participate in an activity that sparks interest for the Bible story. Then, the classes join together for the Bible story they've already heard a little about. This is the Wee Worship time. We have wonderful storytellers who are able to tell the story in an exciting way that is geared just for preschoolers! You also may have heard us saying our memory verse or worshipping God (sometimes we get a little loud!) Then we say a prayer together and head back to our classes. For the rest of the hour, children are participating in activities specifically designed to enhance the Bible story and help them remember it and understand it. Interested? Feel free to join us!

Check out our new look on the website!

Perfect Parenting

If you're anything like me, I am constantly wondering how I can be a better parent, a perfect parent more or less. I want the best for my children, but most of all, I want them to be Jesus-followers and God-honoring adults. That is my continual prayer. I am constantly trying to find a way that I can ensure that they will 'beat the odds' and continue to follow Jesus when they are on their own. This week I came across an article about parenting from Christianity Today that changed my thinking. It made me wonder about the standards parents are held to based on the outcome of their children. The article is called The Myth of the Perfect Parent: why the best parenting techniques don't produce Christian children by Leslie Leland Fields. In her article, she believes that we need to "quit asking, 'Am I parenting successfully?' And we most certainly need to quit asking, 'Are others parenting successfully?'"

Instead we need to ask, 'Am I parenting faithfully?' Faithfulness, after all, is God's highest requirement for us." That challenges me. I do need to follow my parenting role as defined in the Bible, (Deut. 6:7, Eph. 6:4, to name a few) and give it the best I've got. However, it is not ME who makes the difference in my children. Ultimately it is GOD. Thank goodness!! If you'd like to read this article, go to www.christianitytoday.com

What's My Child Learning?

Each week your child has a Wee Worship time including a Bible story, singing songs, prayer, and hands-on activities that aid learning.

February

- ☺ Jesus wants to be my friend forever.
- ☺ Jesus can do anything.
- ☺ "With God all things are possible."
Matthew 19:26

March

- ☺ Jesus wants to be my friend forever.
- ☺ Jesus loves everyone.
- ☺ "Love each other."
John 15:12
