

West Towne Discussion Guide

VS

Overview:

As we wrapped up our series on Versus, we came together to remember that God is still in charge. Because of that, we're free to live and love as he's called us to. We can have a deep, abounding trust in God, which then leads us into living boldly for his Kingdom. Though we may come to different conclusions about certain issues in our society, we know that before we are Republicans or Democrats or Libertarians or Independents, before we are even Americans – we are followers of Jesus and citizens of his Kingdom. That should lead us to live for him first and above all else.

Discussion:

1. Do you struggle with trusting that God is ultimately in control? Why or why not? If you've experienced moments of God's movement in your life, share how those times led you to a deeper trust in him.

2. Has there ever been a time in your life in which you trust in God was shaken? Share, if you feel comfortable.
 3. Though we know God is in control, he still calls us to live as he's called us and to work to advance his Kingdom. What are some ways that we can live on mission the way God has called us to, while at the same time trusting and believing that God's will isn't ultimately achieved by our own efforts, but rather by his power?
- 4. Read Psalm 47. How does this psalm help you come to trust more deeply in God's rule and control? How can that trust lead you to live united with others that you might have disagreements with?
5. As you close, spend some time in prayer for the unity of God's Spirit to be made known in your group, in our church, and in God's church around the world.
